

I oppose changing broadcast ownership restrictions to allow media cross ownership and further relaxing limits on the number of media outlets owned by an entity. I believe that further concentration of ownership of the public airwaves is detrimental to free and open national discourse.